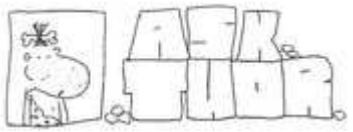
Afterword from Thor



After being found in a glacier in 1979 and unthawed, Thor completed two Ph.D.'s at a prestigious ivy league school in Geological Sciences and Cryophysics. Then he discovered he can make more money giving advice. Thor now resides in a cave in West Virginia with his dog, Mammoth.

Dear Thor,
Your advice always hits home for me, it's so simple and to the point. How do you do it, especially given your unfrozen caveman origins?
– Curious George

Dear George,
It misconception that caveman not sophisticated or somehow know less that modern man. Modern man and caveman know same amount. Both know nothing.
Best regards,
Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,
I love that bone in your hair. How do you get it to stay?
– Betty Hairdo

Dear Betty,
Thanks. You single, you want to see Thor bone up-close? Bone in hair is clip-on bone, like clip-on bowtie only for hair.
Love,
Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,

I really like this girl and she might like me. How do I find out?

– Unsure Sir

Dear Unsure,

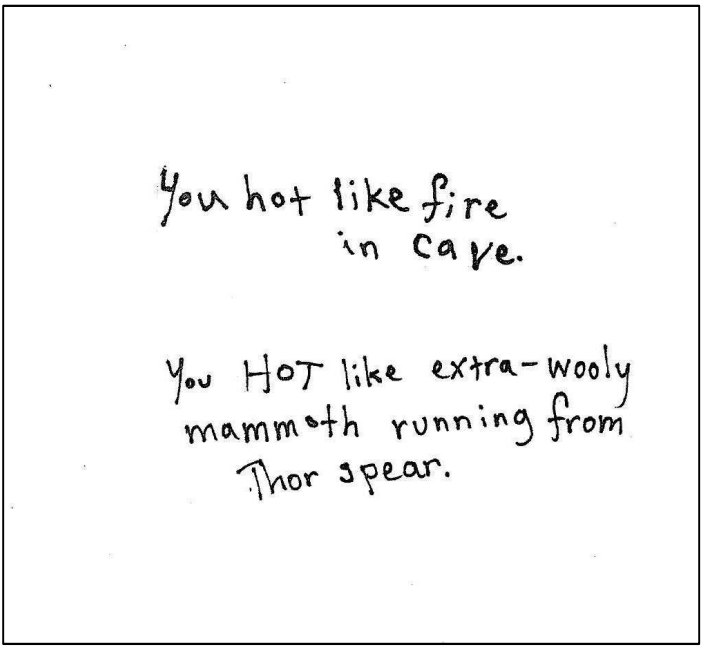
Only way to stop be unsure is to be sure. When Thor like girl, he tell girl. Sometimes pound on chest, make loud noise, throw spear very far distance in order to impress girl. Not all girl impressed by spear though, some girl more impressed if you honest, funny, intelligent. Only way to know if girl like you is to be you around girl. If she like you, she will like you. If girl want to make out with you, she get eyes like "let's go in cave and make fire".

You be you, see if she like you!

Love,

Thor

XOXO



Thor note on bar napkin when try to pick up pretty lady.

Dear Thor,
I've got a huge problem. It is so big I don't even know how to tell you how big it is. But, basically, it is a really big problem. What should I do?
Thanks a million, Thor,
– Problematic

Dear Problemaddict,
Thanks for writing Thor. Thor know what your problem is. Don't worry. Thor know you like worry, you think worry all fun. It fun till someone get hurt. You like make drama in life. You dumb. You need wake up and smell coffee. Life not big problem. You make problem big. Problem little. Problem not exist. You exist. You make problem in mind. Thor know. You drama king. Get over you self and stop be a problem addict.
Love,
Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,
How is it that every time I go to the grocery it never fails there is someone in front of me in the 10 items or less lane with 11 items in their cart? I know, I count each item, it's 11 and not 10 or less.
Sincerely,
– Ima Minder

Dear Minder,
First, Thor recommend you take stick out your butt. Next, Thor think if someone go express lane, they in hurry, like how pregnant lady drive to hospital when she going have baby now. You mind own business and make world nice place. You see thing you think wrong, you look at you and see what wrong with you first that make you think they wrong. You not know their whole story. Maybe they blind, maybe they illiterate, maybe they just don't care, or maybe they in hurry because going to have baby. Not your business. You in hurry, why you in hurry? Why you in express lane? Maybe you need lesson in patience and this why Mr. I-have-11-items-in-10-item-or-less-lane always in front of you.

Much love!
Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,
I've got a horrible nose hair problem. I can't seem to get it under control. I want to find a lady, but they are all very upset by my nose hair.
– Hairy Nose

Dear Hairy,
Thor sympathize with your situation. Honestly. It hard to have hair nowadays because people think hair gross. It unacceptable to have hair on you body, except on top your head. It really suck. Thor used have hair all over Thor body because Thor caveman. Now Thor have it all cryogenically removed due to natural glacial freezing and unfreezing process. Thor don't tell everyone this, but the hair on top Thor head is wig now. Make Thor sad. Thor wish he have hair in nose like you. Sorry you sad. Maybe you find you unfrozen cave lady who like nose hair. If you do, you give lady's number to Thor, okay? She may not like Thor though because Thor have no nose hair now.
Best wishes,
Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,

My mother means well, but always manages to say really insulting things to me. It's like she doesn't even realize she is doing this. For instance, I'll say how sad I am not to have a family of my own (a husband and children), and she'll say something like "It's all for the better. I just finished reading a book about a loose hippie woman who had a really difficult time raising her child." First, I am not a hippie. Second, I am not loose. My mom doesn't even know me anymore because I keep my distance since she has this way of being really mean. The weird thing is, she doesn't seem to realize how what she is saying comes across, it's like she's convinced she just said something helpful where in reality it was really mean!

– Disenchanted Daughter

Dear Disenchanted,

You right, sound like your mom a bitch. It okay, she learn this over the years from her own choices and experiences. You not need to participate in them. You go make your own family and leave mean mom in dust. When she get tired of dust, maybe she choose to change.

Love,

Thor

Dear Thor,

I like to drink tea. I like drinking tea so much that I try to get other people to drink tea all the time. I don't understand why more people don't drink tea like me, it's the best thing in the world. I feel like so many people are missing out. What should I do? I want to help people to understand, so they can enjoy tea as much as I do and live a fuller life.

– Tea Freak

Dear Freak,
Thor like you to back down from extremist position momentarily and evaluate situation with Thor. We going to look at another example of same paradigm of behavior that maybe help you understand what you doing. Okay? You maybe see person in religious organization who get very convinced they right. Maybe think their experience is the only and best experience and that everyone on planet should have same experience they have. People not going to hell because they not have the same experience. You like tea, someone else like something else. Different people find joy in different things. If this not okay with you, then you just taking away from you own joy. Too bad for you.
Love,
Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,
I have a vegetarian friend whom I don't think eats enough protein. I think she needs to eat meat. In fact, I invite her for dinner and slip meat into the food. This makes me feel somewhat bad, but I think she needs to eat meat. What can I do?
– Needs Meat

Dear Needs,
It really underhanded of you to sneak meat into vegetarian friend's meal. You not good friend to do this. Thor think you need to reevaluate situation. You not in charge your friend, you in charge you. Why you want to be control freak anyway? What wrong with you? Thor not even want talk to you anymore Thor think you so rude! If Thor see you now Thor kick your ass then ask you nice lady friend on date.
Shame on you!
Thor

XOXO

Thor,
I think the world needs to change, but sometimes it's so overwhelming to think about. Do you have any advice?
– Revolutionary Thinker

Dear Revolutionary,
Thor want see world again like world when Thor live long time ago before froze in glacier. Back then Thor go where Thor want to go, Thor do what Thor want to do. If wimpy police officer tell Thor "you get fine for j-walk" Thor bash wimpy man with club and say "Thor walk however Thor want to walk!" Now life so complicated and unnatural. So many rule and so little time. This why Thor live in cave away from everyone. No one tell Thor what to do. Thor is Thor boss. Thor only take shit from Thor. Maybe you like live in cave too. It good life. Sometime lonely, but at least nobody tell Thor he can't make fire because it against the "neighborhood covenant".
Love,
Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,
I don't know what to do, so I'm writing to you. So, I must somewhat know what to do since I'm writing to you, otherwise I'd be completely lost and sleeping in a sewer pipe reciting my A-B-C's backwards in Chinese. I used to want to be a doctor, then I was trying to be an artist, then I thought I'd be a chef. In the end, I'm just working a deadening office job to pay the bills and I'm not sure what my passion is anymore.
- Passionless

Dear Passionless,
Thor think it very sad when person get out of touch with passion. Every person have passion. Thor passionate for give advice, club squirrels, and make fire. Thor also like other things Thor will not mention in advice column. How you reconnect with your passion when it lost? Thor think it like reconnecting with a friend you have grown distant with. Your passion like your good friend, you always friends no matter what. You always can reconnect with good friend, no matter what. First thing it take to reconnect is time. You take time with your passion. If your passion dance, you take time to sit, listen to music you like and imagine you dance to it. You take better care of your body and start stretching routine and strengthen your legs and core. You don't just go out and start dance a very complicated ballet all of the sudden. Not normal, anyhow. If it happen like that, you let Thor know. Thor know, from Thor experience in frozen glacier, that it take time. It take time to realize your passion. Took Thor many long, cold year to realize dreams. Now Thor live dreams. Even if you froze in a glacier, never give up. If your life have no passion, you have no life, so you make sure take time for nurture your passions.
Love,
Thor

XOXO

Hi Thor,
You are pretty cool. I am writing to you because I always feel like a misfit and I'm not sure what to do about it. Any advice?
– Miss Fit

Dear Miss,
Thanks for writing Thor. Thor think most important thing that you accept yourself. If you true to self, who care if you big misfit. Thor misfit back in caveman times. Thor always want do things that ahead of times, things that not popular. Thor like spend time alone in cave, make paintings. Thor make fire and tools. Not everyone like what Thor do. Thor driven from village, but it good because this how Thor end up froze in glacier, during Thor long travel, and now here Thor is giving advice to you. If you feel like misfit, you probably do something right, because when people fit in it usually because they just doing what everyone else always did. You artist, free-thinker, adventurer. Thor like this. If you cute and single, be sure give Thor your number so Thor can take you on date.

Love,

Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,

How do I stop deer from destroying my vegetable garden? This morning I found deep footprints in my raised beds. The footprints dislodged some root crops—but, worse still, the tops of several pepper and okra plants had been bitten off! Thor, I'm puzzled for two reasons: pepper plants, being nightshades, are toxic; and I thought nobody liked okra! What do I do?

With thanks,

– Kinder Gardener

Dear Kinder,

Thor come from frozen glacier. Before frozen glacier, Thor live in different place where animal and people live more connection than now. You still live in connection, but most people think no connection. Here what you need do to get deer go away and leave you vegetable for you to enjoy. You sit in middle your garden, make fire. You take stone and hold in hand and tell deer in your thoughts that he no welcome come eat your vegetable. Then you plant stone in earth. You pee on fire put it out. Then you enjoy your vegetables and deer respect you space.

L ☯VE,

Thor

XOXO

Dear Thor,

With all this talk of some kind of big change happening at the end of 2012, what do you think will happen? Are you doing anything to prepare and what would be your advice to humanity?

– Thinking Ahead

Dear Thinking,

Thor lived through big changes on earth already, so he prepared for anything. Thor think lots of people ready to live in more harmony with other people and with nature. This evident when Thor step outside of his cave and look around him. Thor talk with many people and Thor find most people want same things, more or less. They want be loved with friends and family, they want be happy. Thor live life in way that make Thor happy. In other word, Thor follow Thor heart. Thor think if all humans follow heart world be very different. Maybe what happen is that people begin follow heart fearlessly and make better world together. This change Thor love to see. Thor have faith in humankind to make better world. We do it when each person make own life beautiful and beautify life of friends and family by loving them and sharing who you are and your talents with others. Many people afraid to die and afraid to fail. When we not be afraid, really start living. Important remember you choose feelings you live with in life. Thor like feel good, so Thor choose love, even if someone mean to Thor, Thor can still choose feel good.

Love,

Thor
